

UP DATE MARCH 2016 From ABMM (Brazilian Association of Women Doctors)

The elected executive of ABMM (Brazilian Association of Medical Women) for 2016-2018 was installed in office during a ceremony held in the precincts of APM (Medical Association of the State of São Paulo) on March, 12, 2016.

President: Dr Fátima Regina Abreu Alves; Vice President: Dr Marilene Melo and directors for the departments. During the ceremony there was a lecture held by Dr Alexandrina Meleiro, psychiatrist, specialized in medical profession: "Medical Women: Management of their Career" The ceremony was followed by a pleasant lunch.

During the same ceremony the executive of ABMM-SP (State of São Paulo Branch of ABMM) also was installed for 2016-2018 President: Dr Ivone Meinão; Vice-President Dr Maite Sevillano. Ms Sevillano is the elected Vice President for Latin America for MWIA for 2016-2019. Ms Sevillano is member of the International Scientific Committee of MWIA 2016 Vienna.

During the same ceremony were held homages by ABMM-SP for some important women for the International Women's Day.:

Luiza Trajano: important entrepreneur and one of vice presidents of the organizing committee for the Olympics RIO 2016

Janaina Paschoal: Lawyer, professor, one of the authors of the first lawsuits for the impeachment of the President

There were also other honored, medical doctors, a famous journalist specialized in health issues.

See you soon in Vienna

Anna Maria Martits

Director, International Affairs, ABMM